New Spring Suits $10. to $25.

NOW $8.50 to $16.75

JUST the SALE YOU'VE BEEN WAITING FOR!

At this time of the year every one gets impatient for "something new to wear"—so this sale of suits will no doubt be welcomed most heartily.

Every suit has some new and distinctive feature about it that stamps it as absolutely of this spring fashioning. Each one is most desirable and wearable. Even the least expensive is well tailored, daintily lined, and not skimped in material. Those at the higher prices are marvels of good weaves, smart style and color.

Many of them are Bischof suits, which we have just received from that famous designer. Women like Bischof suits and wait for word about them—they're always beautifully tailored, smart though simple, and surprisingly inexpensive.

Come in early tomorrow. Remember, these are very special prices to start spring buying in earnest.

The plans and specifications for said road may be seen at the office of the Clerk of the Rockcastle County Court in Mt. Bidders will be required to state price on macadam and also price to put same in place, as far as the county at the nearest railroad station, the county reserving the right to deliver same at the price mentioned. All work to be done under the direction and supervision of the State Road Department.

By Order of the Fiscal Court of Rockcastle County.

Clerk, Rockcastle Fiscal Court.

Brodhead

Mrs. W. L. Richards, of Mt. Vernon, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Farnish last week. Miss Ruth McCall was with her folks at Mareburg the latter part of last week. J. B. Frith is ably representing the London Grocery Company, of London, Ky., now, and is making them a first-class man. Joe Riddle received the motorcycle that he ordered some weeks ago, Friday of last week and is seemingly enjoying his experience of running it. This machine is built for two, and Joe is Covington Saturday. His injuries are said to be not necessarily fatal. Our W. A. Carson informs us that his brother, Gus Carson, who we reported had died suddenly last Sunday morning a week ago, was shot to death, the assassin using a double barrel gun loaded with buck-shot. After killing Mr. Carson, the assassin carefully placed the gun across the breast of the dead man presumably to bear out the idea of suicide. Mr. Carson was a large owner of valuable mining stock, and doubtless was killed for this reason, as there had recently been considerable advance in the stock. We hope to learn more of this unfortunate affair, and that the New Mexico authorities will succeed in unraveling what now seems to be a mystery. It is said that Mr. Carson had no enemies that he knew of. Miss Angie Hunt was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Anderson, last week.

Miss Mae Cummins was visiting friends in Mt. Vernon Saturday and Sunday. From the number that boarded the train Sunday noon from this place, Brodhead must have been well represented at the Fifth Sunday exercises at Mt. Vernon. We were unable to get a list. The Rev. A. J. Pike was at Mt. Vernon Saturday and Sunday on account of the Fifth Sunday exercises. Lord Lunceford, who has been in Cincinnati for the past few weeks running that great city, is at home for his vacation. J. L. Pilkenton was in Mt. Vernon between trains Saturday. Evan Wheelodon left for Farmland, Ind., last Sunday, where he has a position in an automobile factory. Mrs. Wheelodon will join him within the next few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smith and Miss Rissie Smith were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hiatt Monday. Mrs. Victor Francisco, daughter of Mrs. Loutish Roberts, died at the residence of her mother Monday evening. Mrs. Francisco had been suffering from tuberculosis for about two years, but had only been confined to her bed for the past few weeks. Never was there any one that bore their sufferings more patiently and uncomplainingly than she did. She was a faithful member of the Baptist church and a devoted Christian. After services at the Christian church by Rev. A. J. Pike, her remains were laid to rest in the Christian church cemetery beside her father, who died about six years ago. Beside her husband she is survived by her mother, two sisters and three brothers, who were all present at the funeral services. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the entire town. W. H. Barnes and John Riddle were in Mt. Vernon Saturday on business. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hiatt. Mr. and Mrs. John Robins and daughter, Mildred, of this place, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Durham and little Austin, of Mt. Vernon, were guests of Mrs. Mollie Durham and family of Sparks Quarry Sunday afternoon. Miss Mattie Adams, the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Adams, formerly of this place, but now of Long View, Ill., and Guy Bowling, of Berea, Ky., were married at the residence of Mrs. Anna Maxwell, Berea, on April 29, 1916. They are at home to their many friends at Berea. Mrs. Bowling has many friends and a number of relatives here who join us in wishing this young couple a long and prosperous wedded life. Mrs. Bowling is a niece of Mrs. O. V. Jarrett, of Berea, Ky. R. H. Hamm, Granville Owens, A. J. Pike and others were in Mt. Vernon Wednesday and Thursday using their influence in the location of the pike from Mt. Vernon to Brodhead. The people of Brodhead naturally have a choice in this location, and that is for the accommodation of the greatest number of people, but are more interested in having good roads let them be where those in authority see fit to build them.

POLICE DEPARTMENT, CITY OF NEW YORK

New York, April 30, 1916.

James Maret,
Mt. Vernon, Ky.,

My dear friend:

The article which appeared in the Signal a short time ago relative to a raid on a cabaret, conducted by Inspector Dwyer, was read by me with much interest and I am very thankful to you and the editor—my old friend, Edgar Albright—for publishing same. I read the "Signal" every week with interest and am kept informed of all the news about all my old friends and relatives in old Rockcastle county. I note with interest that you are going to have the Boone Way constructed through Mt. Vernon which will not only be an improvement to the land value but to those of our people who wish to use this highway for motoring or driving for pleasure; business or commercial purposes.

You will find enclosed in a separate package which I am sending an account of the Police work conducted by our office in that portion of the City of New York known as Chinatown. This article appeared in the Sunday Tribune of April 30, 1916. You will, no doubt, call to mind that the founder of this, one of New York's foremost journals, was Horace Greeley Journalist, writer and statesman whose statue stands in Printing House Square as an inspiration to his fellow printers who pass this spot daily and nightly. There is also enclosed a portion of the Evening Journal in which appears in the sixth column an account of the discovery of a "Chinese Arsenal" but the young fellow who wrote this story is a little off as these implements of war used in the Chinese feeds are nothing more than relics of by gone days when the Hip Sings Tongs were at war with the On Leon Tongs. There is no anticipation of another Tong war for as we have suppressed gambling and driven the gamblers to other cities the other undesirable element have gone with them.

The Chinese are very interesting and it is hard to understand them, but by persistence and perseverance we beat them at their own game, and they finally gave up for the first time in the history of Chinatown. When the Chinese used to fight they always used revolvers of large calibre—45 colts or Smith & Wesson. If a police officer was to show them the regulation police revolver which is a 38 Police Positive Colt, they would remark: "He be too lung" (young). When a Chinaman fires a revolver at another, he as a rule, shuts his eyes and turns his head the other way. There is a fellow here by the name of Louie Way one of the old Chinese gun-men who was hired to go around to Mott street to shoot one of the head men in the On Leon Tongs by the name of Gee Toy. He went around with his big 45 colts and seeing Gee Toy "He takum big boy out and shutum eyes and he hit horse in Naughtin's stable one block away."

Gee Toy, the bad man, of the On Leon Tongs, who used to wear a vest made of chains and go around to Pell Street with two big boys in his hands (2 45 Smith & Wesson) and make the Hip Sings hop "He empty two big boys, he throw them in street, he pull out two more and make Hip Sings hop some more." Gee Toy is a peaceful individual and my best friend at the present time, and I do not think there will ever be another Tong war.

At the present time in this city, there is much talk as well as action, along the line of preparedness and Police Department of the City of New York, are doing their share along these lines. We are now getting ready several regiments to go into camp at Fort Wadsworth, Staten Island, which is one of the United States Government forts. Each policeman will go into camp for two weeks and be taught how to drill, shoot both with small arms and cannons. I do not believe that we will have a war but the best way to have peace is to have a big enough army and navy to make all nations afraid of us and they will leave us alone and also respect us more than they are at the present time.

If you are ever up to New York I will make it a point to see that you get keys to the city. I will do my best to make things interesting for you. Please give my regards to all of my old friends and extend to them an invitation to my home should any of them journey this way any time in the future.

Your true friend,
WILLIAM O. JONES.

A SYMBOL OF HEALTH

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets and still fulfils its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of the tablets from your drug-gist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. Obtainable everywhere.

KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION

OUR BOONE WAY man was in Frankfort, Friday and Saturday last and while there visited Boone's tomb, which is located in one of the most romantic spots in the Frankfort cemetery.

Overlooking the new State Capitol building across Kentucky river, on its right bank, near 400 feet higher than that historic stream is located the monument erected by the Kentucky legislature, after the remains of the pioneer and his wife had been brought back from Missouri in 1845, and beneath this monument lie the bodies of this illustrious pair. A little forest of large trees surround the site, consisting of sycamores, pines, elms and poplars. These trees are probably 70 years old and were planted about the time of the re-burial. The monument is about 18 feet high, including the base which is 8 feet square. On its upper portion, on four sides, is chiseled figures and scenes of the adventures of the Indian fighter in the "dark and bloody ground."

The only inscriptions on the monument are simply the names of the noted couple. On the west side, "Daniel Boone", on the East side, "Rebecca Boone". No dates are shown.

The place is enclosed by a tall iron fence, without a gate, to prevent defacement of the monument by thoughtless relic hunters. Before the fence was erected the marble had been chipped off by these prowlers to such an extent it required considerable expense to repair the damage.

EX-GOVERNOR MCCREARY, now has an office in Lexington, where he is president of the Rural Credit Association. He was visited by one of our citizens a few days since on hunt of historical information which he secured from the "sage of Madison." The Governor asked to be remembered to his numerous Rockcastle friends.

OVER BOONE WAY

From North Carolina to Lexington.

The Southern Appalachian Good Roads Association will hold their 1916 Convention in Lexington, Kentucky, on Sept. 5, 6, 7 and 8th.

It is proposed for a portion of the North Carolina delegation to come in automobiles, starting from Lexington, North Carolina, and Boone Park, the southern terminus of Boone Way and Boone's Trail and making an inspection tour of the great highway provided where the road has the "rough places" smoothed down where the construction is not complete.

The following letter to Mr. Maret from President Dr. Joseph Pratt, of Chapel Hill, N. C., explains the situation:

"I wish to acknowledge receipt of yours of April 24th and to thank you for your letter and for the information. I agree with you that we should not think of trying to change the dates of the convention. If the commissioners of the three counties which have not finished their links of the highway will put the worst places in fair condition, the delegates ought to be able to make automobile trips through there without very much trouble. I think your idea is a good one of sending a scout car, if possible, over the road some time during the middle of August. I will see if the National Highways Association can help us in this."

Hates Chickens and Cows Too, Tell Reason.

Woman's Story Will Hold Interest for Thousands of People Everywhere.

"I hate the cows and chickens," said Mrs. Etta Edwards of 316 Mill street, Lockland, Ohio, in paraphrase of a popular song of the cabarets.

"I have lived on eggs and milk for so long that I just can't look at a hen or cow with friendly eyes," she explained laughingly. "When one's diet is restricted to the products of our friends of the barn yard for weeks and then months, it is like suddenly stepping into a little paradise of content to find all of the good things of former days back on your own bill of fare."

Mrs. Edwards' story will hold interest for thousands of men and women who would welcome, as she did freedom from a diet.

"I have long been a sufferer from stomach troubles," she explained. "I paid in pain for every meal I ate. There was the daily headache that appeared soon after breakfast, and stayed for lunch and supper. My sleep, after the hours of suffering, was broken and gave me no real rest. I had no energy, was tired all the time, and life was just long days of discontent."

"In the hope of improving I began the diet of boiled milk and boiled eggs. And I was faithful. For weeks I kept this diet and I did improve some under it, but I was not being cured, I realized. "Now my stomach is a great deal better. I can eat almost anything without ill effects. I am too thankful to depart from plainly cooked food yet, however. But my appetite is good, my sleep is sound and refreshing, my housework is no longer an irritating difficult task."

"The reason? I have taken Tanlac, the Master Medicine. So why should I hesitate to recommend it to anyone or everyone who suffers as I did?"

Throughout the country there are more than 1,000,000 who will say, as does Mrs. Edwards, that there is no medicine that acts so favorably on ailments of the stomach and kidney or catarrhal affections, or so good a tonic, appetizer and invigorant as Tanlac, which is now being introduced in Mt. Vernon, at Drug Store of R. H. Miller, also at Central Drug Co., Livingston, and John Robins' Drug Store, Brodhead, W. M. Owens' store, Burr, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, S. E. Welch Bera; J. National Defense and International Peace

What the Engineers are Doing

THIRTY thousand American engineers are making a card index survey of American industry so that it may be prepared for its vital part in defending the Country, if need comes. The past eighteen months have taught us here in America what lack of industrial preparedness has meant to some of the countries now at war. These nations had the ships and they had the men; but when the hour struck, their factories were not able to furnish the colors with arms and shells and powder. Their factories were not prepared. And our factories are not prepared.

But it is not enough to draw a moral. In the United States five great Engineering Societies—Civil, Mining, Mechanical, Electrical and Chemical—have pledged their services to the Government of the United States, and are already working hand in hand with the Government to prepare industry for the national defense. They receive no pay and will accept no pay. All they seek is opportunity to serve their country, that she may have her industries mobilized for defense.

All elements of the nation's life—the manufacturers, the business men, and the workmen—should support this patriotic and democratic work of the engineers, and assist them cheerfully when asked. There can be no better national insurance against war.

The Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, representing all advertising interests have offered their free and hearty service to the President of the United States, in close co-operation with these five Engineering Societies, to the end that the Country may know what the Engineers are doing. The President has accepted the offer. The Engineers have welcomed the co-operation.

This advertisement, published without cost to the United States, is the first in a nation-wide series to call the country to the duty of co-operating promptly and fully with the Engineers.

JARVE COOK SPEAKS A WORD

I noticed in The Signal about Mr. H. C. Gentry plowing up his watch. This recalled to my mind a story once told by "Uncle Dick" Miller about an old Rockcastle settler by the name of Forsythe, that moved to Missouri by wagon, and in crossing a stream on the way dropped his watch in the water and was unable to locate it.

Some two years later he was moving back to his native hills and again crossing the stream which was then frozen over, he thought of his watch and putting his ear to the ice heard it ticking, broke through and got his time piece which was running all right. "Old Cull" then said, "Dick, how in the nation did that watch run all this time?" "Uncle Dick" says, "Why, 'Cull', it run by water."

I also note what The Signal says about the new L. & N. car No. 77-777 passing through Mt. Vernon. This car was run in at this place loaded with block coal and shipped to Jacksonville, Fla.

Yours truly,
JARVE COOK,
Blanche, Ky.

Every now and then some fellow caught selling whisky, or who gets drunk and shoots up the town, gets caught where he ought not to be, or does some other low down crime, runs the first place to the newspaper with the request, "Don't say anything about my little trouble, I don't want it advertised to the world." A few times we have granted such requests to get a good cussing for doing so, but never again will we be guilty of leaving out such items and we trust that we will never be asked to do so again. The man who is low down enough to get out in the dark and commit such offenses should not object to the world knowing the character of man he is. Do right and you will feel right.

The house belonging to Mrs. K. J. McKinney, on West Main street, and occupied by Luther Mullins, burned about noon last Sunday. The only one to suffer loss was Mrs. Harp, who lived in the next house, and in moving out her furniture badly damaged it, which was not insured.

In the past it has been the practice with County Judges to remit fines on the promise of good behaviour etc., but that day is past and in order that violators may know just what the law is, we publish the following issued by State Inspector Sewell. The article is as follows:

County Judges, who have remitted or suspended fines, will be held strictly accountable for the State's portion of the fines by State Inspector and Examiner, Nat B. Sewell, who received an opinion to day from Assistant Attorney General O. S. Hogan stating that while a judge has the right in term to set aside judgment and grant a new trial, he has no authority to suspend or remit fines. It is customary in many counties for the County Judge after sentence to remit the fine or suspend it, or to go to the jail and direct the release of a prisoner serving out a fine. This has been held to be a direct exercise of the pardoning power, which belongs alone to the Governor. County jailers, the opinion says, have no right to release a prisoner on such terms. The opinion quotes the Court of Appeals, saying: "The practice of suspending the judgments of courts in misdemeanor cases is a failure to enforce the law; it encourages crime and is a menace to good government." State Inspector Sewell said judges must take steps to collect the fines and execute their judgments, or they will be required to pay the amount into the State Treasury.

CHAUTAUQUA ENTERS NEW PHASE

Permanence of Parent Institution of Chautauqua Movement Now Definitely Established.

Over Quarter Million Dollars Being Spent on Plant at Chautauqua, N. Y., This Year, Making Largest Single Year's Development in History of the Movement Since 1874—New Entrances, Public Buildings, and Residences, All of Permanent Construction. City of Tents No Longer the Type to Represent the Chautauqua Idea.

NEW developments which are going on at Chautauqua, N. Y., in buildings, approaches and transportation facilities differ greatly from the prevailing notion of a chautauqua as a transitory thing. Brick paved highways, double track interurban car lines, entrances of brick and concrete in good architectural design, landscape treatment on a broad scale, educational buildings in comprehensive groups, hotel rooms with steam heat and other like conveniences, private residences costing a fortune to build do not grow up around an enterprise of fleeting character, yet all these things are taking shape this spring at Chautauqua. The fact is that the parent institution of the Chautauqua movement, on Chautauqua Lake, has within a decade passed into a wholly new phase, the "city of tents" giving way very fast to a city that "has foundations." Electric light and power plants, gas mains, water supply and sewage systems, paved sidewalks, change office, news and candy stands and the rest room for ladies. Toilet rooms, inside and outside, will be provided for both sexes. Adjoining the traction ticket office will be the baggage department with checking and transfer offices, the freight department and the express department, all to have ample platform space for loading and unloading. Work has already been begun so as to assure completion before the season opens. The cost of the structure will be some $30,000 and incidental improvements by the Traction Company perhaps $10,000 additional.

The institution has expended for land and buildings and for the improvements made over $40,000. The special piece of brick highway has cost the state and county $17,000, while the Traction Company expenditures, as just indicated, will aggregate at least $40,000.

For a quarter of a century the water gate was the principal and almost the only entrance to Chautauqua, and it will be remembered for its natural picnics, waiting rooms, check room, baggage room and refreshment booth. The second floor will be entirely devoted to a covered promenade. A most attractive building is promised by Green & Wicks of Buffalo, the institution architect.

For the past two years there has been a marked improvement in this entire section of Chautauqua, in ground, park and cottage betterments, to which the new boat landing and water entrance will give final emphasis.

Summer Schools Growing.

The growth of summer schools throughout the country is being largely shared by the pioneer summer schools at Chautauqua, N. Y. This year's addition to the Chautauqua Summer Schools on College Hill will be in the form of two sixty-foot ends added to the sides of the rectangle already well defined. When completed all the classes, comprising 3,000 students, will be provided for in this building, with the open end of the quadrangle toward the lake and "the old chestnut tree" a venerable Chautauqua landmark in year-round office buildings of fire proof or slow burning construction are among the things that one by one have supplanted the earlier makeshifts. Over a quarter of a million dollars is just now being expended to present the assembly to 1916 visitors in its new character as a permanent institution definitely come to stay.

The Chautauqua assembly at Chautauqua, N. Y., will this summer offer to the visitor's view two important and striking improvements in two approaches—the water gate or pier, where will enter the visitor coming by steamboat from other points on Lake Chautauqua, and the land gate, where will enter the visitor coming by trolley from any direction or by motorcar over the excellent highway which connects with the great east and west thoroughfare at Westfield, N. Y.

Chautauqua's New Land Gate.

The general highway improvement is the most extensive enterprise now under way at Chautauqua, N. Y. This has been secured by generous co-operation with Chautauqua Institution on the part of the State of New York, the county of Chautauqua and the Chautauqua Traction Company operating the electric railroad from Jamestown to Westfield. It comprises a modern passenger station, double tracking of the trolley line, a new brick paved highway and important changes in the boundaries of the Assembly enclosure. Plans were made in 1913 by the State for the improvement of the highway. A magnificent new state road is now open through Mayville to Westfield, connecting with the great roadway east and west, known to all automobilists. The line of the highway at Chautauqua was changed and straightened and paved with brick. This change has made possible the addition of a considerable acreage to the lot and park space of the institution. It involves also the double tracking of the trolley line, the laying of needed switches and the construction of a new and complete station. The plans for the station building are by Freeburg & Fidler, architects, of Jamestown, N. Y.

There will be a double track in front and a switch to the rear for freight, baggage and express. The building will be 66 by 225, built of red brick, stone and concrete. The design will harmonize with the present permanent institution buildings, with red tile roof and wide, projecting eaves. The outside passenger platform will be 28 by 72, so arranged that outgoing and incoming traffic may be separated. On the inside will be the institution ticket office with its counter and outside passage, the exchanges beauty by every one who has visited the assembly during the past forty-two years. More recently, since the development of the electric railway and since the automobile has become so important a factor, the roadgate has received the larger share of visitors, yet it has had nothing to suggest the real character of Chautauqua. It has been like the railroad approach to many a town, a back door entrance, crowded and uncomfortable, without character or convenience.

The change in the highway and trolley line has made available to the institution a tract about 4,000 feet long, varying in width from 10 to 300 feet, or nearly thirteen acres, and brings the total area within the enclosure up to about 200 acres. The new section is laid out into eighty-eight lots and into parking. The lots thus made available for lease are somewhat larger than the older Chautauqua lots. Two of the new streets formed are named Harper and Massey avenues, to commemorate services to Chautauqua by Dr. William R. Harper of the University of Chicago and the Massey family of Toronto. In this extension about two acres have been added to the present playground park, and the natural beauty of a stream and ravine at that point will be enhanced by planting trees and shrubs. A plaza near the station has also been reserved for park use. The planning of this addition has been done by George Y. Skinner, a specialist connected with the New York firm of Samuel Parsons & Co., landscape architects.

The Chautauqua High School, the Institution Garage and car parking place the excellent Chautauqua golf links and the industrial center comprising repair shops of various kinds are located west of the Chautauqua enclosure on the highway and trolley line.

Chautauqua's New Water Gate.

Second in importance to the improvements of the land gate at Chautauqua, now under way, is the construction of the new pier building, on the site of the old wooden structure, which was torn down last fall. The Miller Memorial Bell Tower, erected in memory of the late Lewis Miller of Akron, O., co-founder with Bishop John H. Vincent of Chautauqua Assembly, is an impressive enhancement of the natural charm of the point. The new pier building, which will cost about $10,000, will be another added ornament.

The new pier building will be a two-story structure of 40 by 100 feet, with concrete columns and red tile roofing. The first floor will contain the institution ticket office, steamboat ticket office, waiting rooms, check room, baggage room and refreshment booth. The second floor will be entirely devoted to a covered promenade. A most attractive building is promised by Green & Wicks of Buffalo, the institution architect.

The Packard Estate at Chautauqua.

The first really pretentious country estate to be built on Chautauqua Lake has been laid out by Mr. William D. Packard of Warren, O., a member of the Packard Car Company, on a large tract adjoining the institution grounds on the north. Landscape work has been under way all winter. Mr. Packard is the son of the late Warren D. Packard, one of the pioneer summer residents of Chautauqua Lake and one of those influential in the development of Lakewood several years ago.

The property which Mr. Packard has bought lies between the Chautauqua Traction Company's line and the lake and along the north boundary of the Chautauqua institution enclosure. From this particular point there is an unexcelled view from Mayville on the north to Long Point on the south, and it is undoubtedly one of the most desirable residence sites of the entire lake region.

The house is to be three stories high, of brick, stone and steel construction, red tile roof, absolutely fireproof. It is set in a grove of elms, which surround it on all sides but one, that facing the lake.

a lily pond, tennis courts and vegetable gardens.

A cottage for the gatekeeper and tenants is now under construction, and other buildings will adjoin this cottage.

The landscape work has been done under the direction of Mr. H. L. Avery of Cleveland. Eighty-four full grown trees, mostly elms, have been transplanted by Mr. Herbert L. Hyatt of Cleveland, forester, who has transformed an uninteresting bare hillside into a well wooded slope. A great quantity of small planting is also being done.

The Packard residence when completed will probably represent an expenditure close to $175,000.

Larger Hotel Accommodations at Chautauqua.

Among the many excellent boarding houses at Chautauqua, that erected this winter by Mrs. A. J. Lewis and known as the St. Elmo will command attention. It is a handsome and commodious new structure and by its artistic blending into the general architectural scheme of the central place is a real ornament to the place. It will contain many steam heated rooms with private baths. Mrs. Lewis has shown very positive faith in the future of Chautauqua.

Hotel Athenaeum is building an addition to its service equipment. Several boarding houses and private cottages are being built or enlarged.

Fenton Home For Methodist Deacons.

In addition to projects already under way at Chautauqua, N. Y., such as a new pier building, new traction station, new school building and boarding houses, there are expectations concerning a home for Methodist Deacons.

esses provided for in the will of the late James Fenton of Buffalo, N. Y. This his executor hopes to build this spring at an approximate cost of $25,000 to $30,000. The construction will be of brick and stone and will be a most desirable addition to the new Chautauqua buildings of permanent type. The year 1916 is clearly to go down as extraordinary for physical growth at Chautauqua.
